LYNGBY PORCELÆN

PORCELÆNSFABRIKKEN
DANMARK

Press Release Autumn 2018

The perfect add-on for any design lover

While still preserving a rich handcraft tradition, Lyngby Porcelæn constantly devises new ways to interpret the iconic fluting of beautifully-made porcelain in contemporary design. The newest introduction may be small, but it creates an impressive effect on a table, window sill or shelf.

For 80 years, the Danish Porcelain Manufactory – Lyngby Porcelæn has made its mark on Danish porcelain history. But even beloved, decade-long design history sometimes needs a breath of fresh air – without, however, departing from long-standing values.

That is why, this autumn, the iconic porcelain institution is launching a little something which, while new, is still capable of delivering quite an impact. For these new tealight holders, Lyngby Porcelæn has re-worked the width of the fluting, and the combination of wide and narrow grooves produces a surprisingly contemporary, yet very recognizable, design. And of course, the tealight holders bear the coveted Lyngby Porcelæn's stamp on the bottom, so you know you're holding a real piece of porcelain history in your hand.

Lyngby Porcelæn Tealight Holders come in a set of two pieces, with each set priced at EUR 34.00 (RRP)

The new products will be available from mid-September.
